

AIR 1 serves my community by providing music which is not readily available on other stations in this area. I know many other people in my community who listen to this positive music and message and are motivated to perform community service acts as a result. The Fort Smith area would have less diversity and less access to the Christian viewpoint on the radio if this station is displaced by an LPFM broadcaster. Respectfully, Theresa Fontaine